Membership Secretary: Christ Liebegott – reported 869 regular members, 14 junior members, and 194 life members including those just approved.

Rifle Exec: Rich Wall – Rich is excused tonight. He provided information to Chris Lemmon regarding light turnout for the January Cabin Fever Rifle Shoot, and the upcoming February 21 event. Also, some tree stands that were reported on club property have been removed.

Pistol Exec: John Baldwin – Chris Lemmon noted that an IDPA match is scheduled for March.

Combat Exec: Dale Garen – very light combat league turnout; there is an organizational meeting coming up in March.

Trap Exec: Jack Budacki – no report.

Junior Rifle: Kelsey Cade – The new Orion System is in use. It reads and scores targets much faster, allowing more shooting time. All air cylinders are also on site and these are in use. There are 8 – 10 kids turning out consistently. After this week, there will be 2 weeks off; the club calendar is being updated to reflect this.

Executive Board Report: Chris Lemmon – reported on a number of items:

- Combat range stanchions: remaining stanchions to be installed in spring.
- Indoor range baffles: Completed and well below budget thanks to club member Jason Wroblewski, who stepped up to help with this project.

FOAC Report: Bob Oles – Provided a handout on Biden administration proposals. Noted that PA legislature is not controlled by democrats, and so Bob urged people to reach out to their state representatives in support of several bills one of which concerns mail-in voting.

Tim Wetzel urged members to learn about how Pennsylvania’s mail-in voting law was passed, and how the Wolf administration and Pennsylvania courts then eliminated the safeguards that the legislature had in that law. He also noted that the legislature is working to put a PA Constitutional Amendment limiting the length of time a governor’s executive action can last on the ballot.

Craig Holdren noted that Monday June 7 will be the Second Amendment Rally in Harrisburg this year.

County League Report: Craig Holdren – nothing new to report.

Unfinished Business: none.
